A Word from the Pastor

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Season's greetings to you. As we have finished the hectic Christmas season and look forward to the New Year, it gives us an opportunity to thank all those who made it possible for the wonderful celebrations these past few weeks. Let us thank the Sunday school children, teachers and the superintendent Mrs. Lalitha Abraham for the excellent programmes. We also thank all the parents for their sincere support to the children. We thank the choir and the director for the Candle light service and the meaningful skit of the innkeeper and his wife- 'Christmas celebration without Christ'. We want to express our sincere thanks to all those who participated in the programme. Also, we thank everybody who participated in carol singing along with our pastor Rev. P. Royappa. Thank you for reaching all homes, near and far, and sharing the good news. We are grateful to the lay-activities committee chairman and the members for the sumptuous Christmas fellowship dinner and the blessed time together. Our special word of appreciation and thanks to Mrs. Lazarus aunty for the magnificent Christmas decorations. We thank all the members who were directly or indirectly involved in the Christmas celebrations.

Firstly, let us thank God for the year gone by. As we are at the threshold of the New Year, let us prepare ourselves to the unknown tomorrow. Before us lies a new year and we are going to step into it. We do not know what new experiences we may face determining our lives course. In spite of the uncertainty before us, we have a cheerful and comforting message from our heavenly father. "Thus far has the Lord helped us" (1 Sam 7:12). In this situation, we see that Samuel, the judge and the prophet of the Lord praises God when he experiences a wonderful victory over the Philistines by the power of God and erects a stone 'Ebenezer' (a stone of help) in his honour, and says "Thus far has the Lord helped us". If we look back at the year gone by, we too must say, “Thus far has the Lord helped us”, because the words ‘thus far’ are like a sign-post pointing in the direction of our past. What do these words mean to each one of us as we look back? ‘Thus far’ signifies a period. It may be a decade, 20 years, 40 years or till date, it is not finished. The one who has helped us ‘thus far’ is still available to us. It is not complete. Whether through poverty or wealth, sickness or health, whether at home or abroad, or on land, sea or air, whether in time of honour or dishonour, troubles or trials, joys or sorrows, triumphs or failures, prayers or temptations,- ‘Thus far he has helped us’.

Secondly, the same words also point towards the future, what lies ahead of us. The words ‘thus far’ make us realize that the end has not yet arrived. We are not at the end of our roads. We have some more distance to cover in the journey of life. There may be many more trials and temptations, joys and sorrows, victories and failures, prayers and blessings yet to come. We need not be afraid of death because Christ our Lord has made it possible for us to have eternal life, and has given us the blessed hope of tomorrow.

Our earnest prayer is that the Lord who holds the future be your Lord and Saviour. Let him guide you through the years to come. We wish you a blessed, Christ-centred New Year. Let us praise God and sing “O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come...”

Yours sincerely in the Lord,

Rev. David Vijayakumar

Change

Change is inspiring.

The best change often starts as one simple thought.

Change is positive.

It brings an enduring transformation.

Change is progress.

The smallest decision can make the biggest difference.

Change is inevitable.

The sooner we open up to it, the better.

Change is the essence of life.

If we don't change, we don't grow.

Change is future.

And it is here, right now.

Be the change you want to see.

A New Year With The Lord

*A new year is about to unfold
With new opportunities to explore
Doors will open for new experiences
New adventures with the Lord*

*What God has placed within our hearts
We find we'll be able to do
If we look for the opportunities
We'll see the door to go through*

*Remember not the former things
The things of this past year
The Lord will do new things in us
Much more than we are aware*

*We mustn't let anything hold us back
But rise up and take our place
And be all that God wants us to be
With a fresh touch of His grace*

*For He will make a way for us
As we put our trust in Him
And He will guide our every step
By His presence we have within*
